FEATURES

21 Love and Obedience

by Aubrey Johnson

Desiring to know God's will and delighting to do God's will is love in its purest and most practical form.

23 Why Worship Without Instruments? A Cappella Music in Worship

by Bruce McLarty

The New Testament instruction and example are to sing praise to God, making music with our voices and our hearts.

27 Remove Not the Ancient Landmarks

by Alan Highers

Some have crossed the line, ignored the boundaries, and proceeded beyond the limits imposed by divine authority.

30 The Identity of the Church

by Hugh Fulford

We must clearly restate the identifying marks of the church as revealed in the New Testament.

33 Elders Serve Under Authority

by Dennis Loyd, Associate Editor

Elders must recognize they are under certain levels of authority from beyond themselves.

35 Repeating the Division of Open Fellowship

by Matthew W. Morine

Open fellowship is the problem of accepting the unimmersed into Christian fellowship.

38 The Pew, the Pulpit and the Ivory Tower

by Justin Rogers

If our scholarship can be melded with a healthy respect for the Bible, then our scholarship can be improved, and our faith can be strengthened.
