Temptation

A recent news article reported on a dangerous practical joke played by a nursery employee:

A British Columbia based nursery is trying to track down people who bought poisonous plants that were incorrectly labeled “tasty in soup.”

Valleybrook Gardens, which distributed the plants, has worked with government officials to locate the buyers of 17 improperly labeled perennials sold at stores in British Columbia and Ontario from April 18th – 25th. Only 8 of the plants had been accounted for by Sunday.

The label should have read, “All parts of this plant are toxic,” but an employee changed it to, “All parts of this plant are tasty in soup,” said Michel Benoit, the nursery’s general manager. “The employee was making a practical joke and thought it would be caught by a horticulturist,” said Benoit.

The devil has done the same to us. God put a warning label on sin that declared, “Do not eat from this for you shall surely die.” But our enemy switched labels. The label he attached to sin reads, “Looks good. Tastes great. Is desirable to make one wise.”

“Flee!”

Annually around this time of the year a series of TV shows called, “Shark Week” will air on a certain network. Swimming with all kinds of sharks is something that certain divers like to do...not me!

I read a funny story some time ago about a crewman on a South Seas fishing vessel that found himself in a situation no one would ever want to be in. The story goes like this. This crewman was hired to process fish, but the cantankerous captain didn't think he was working fast enough. One day a school of sharks was following the boat, and in an outburst of anger the captain ordered the slow-working crewman thrown overboard! The crewman swam as fast as he could, caught up with the ship, and was pulled on board.

As Christians, there is one thing we all face as believers, a danger that is always present every day. Just like the crewman, once in a while, we may find ourselves unexpectedly thrown into a situation where the ungodly are “swimming” all around us (at our workplace, at a convention, at a party, in a dormitory, on a golf course) and the temptations seem overwhelming. In a spiritual sense, we're “swimming with the sharks.”

Today in my lesson, we will discuss part 2 of “Resisting Temptation,” with our scripture text taken from James 1:13-16. Please take the time and read also II Tim. 2:22 and Gen. 39:12 before we study this subject together today. Remember, you don't want to become shark food!
