Pulling On Both Oars

An old Scotsman operated a small rowboat for transporting passengers. One day a passenger noticed that the old man had carved on one oar the word, "Faith" and on the other oar the word, "Works". Curious about this, the man asked the Scotsman the meaning of these words on the oars. The old man replied, "I'll show you." He dropped the "Faith" oar in the water and pulled the "Works" oar out. As he started rowing with just the "Faith" oar, the boat went around in circles. Then, he pulled the "Faith" oar out and dropped the "Works" oar in. The little boat again, went around in circles this time in the opposite direction. After the demonstration, the old man picked up both oars, "Faith" and "Works", and he began pulling both oars together. The boat sped swiftly over the water.

The old man explained, "You see, that is the way it is in the Christian life. Works without faith are useless, dead, and faith without works is dead also, getting you nowhere. However, faith and works pulling together make for safety, progress and blessing. James 2:14-16

Obeying The Gospel of Christ

Is it biblical to say that a lost sinner must obey the Gospel in order to be saved from their sins? Paul gives the answer in Romans 6:17, as well as Peter in 1Peter 4:17. What did they obey? He tells us in Romans 6:3-5 They were baptized "into Christ". This means they heard the truth, believed the truth, and obeyed the truth, and then, by submitting to the facts and commands of the gospel of Christ, they were able to enter into a saved state with God - becoming His child, wearing the name of Jesus (Christian) and being added to His church. What happens when a sinner obeys the gospel of Christ that we just read in Romans 6:3-5,17? Hearing, believing, repenting, confessing the name of Jesus and being baptized (immersed):

- * One is saved from sin – Mark 16:15-16
- * One receives the forgiveness of sins – Acts 2:38
- * One is now "in Christ" and puts on Christ Galatians 3:27
- * One becomes a child of God – Galatians 3:26-27; 1John 3:2
- * One receives the Holy Spirit as a seal of his sonship to God and as an earnest, a deposit, a guarantee of one's eternal inheritance in heaven – Galatians 4:6; Ephesians 1:13-14; 2Corinthians 5:1-5
- * One is justified, made right, and has peace with God – Romans 5:1
- * One is reconciled to God – Ephesians 2:11-22
- * One becomes a new creature/creation – 2Corinthians 5:17
- * One is added to the church, the spiritual body of Christ – Acts 2:41,47; Ephesians 1:22-23; Matthew 16:18

YOUTH CORNER

The other day I made the biggest mistake. I went into the grocery store hungry. As you can guess, I spent more than I was planning and got things that I would probably not have purchased. EVERYTHING looked good and I put it in the basket with a smile on my face. Why did this happen? Because I was hungry! Our day of worship is today and we should come hungry for God and His people. Every day we should have something inside us that wants to feast on the spiritual things of God! But it all starts with how we feed our spiritual man. If we do not give our spiritual side the things it needs, it will starve and eventually die. If we feed our physical side too much, it will choke out the spiritual side. One thing I try to do is to think about the words: grace, love and mercy! I need those everyday just like I need air to breathe. Remember to feed that spiritual man and it will be craving the things that are eternal!

Our entire youth program is working on memorizing the books of the Bible. Please work on these with your children, grandchildren, nieces, nephews or cousins. It is a simple but important part of what we are trying to do to help each child grow spiritually!
