Just For Today

The following is an article in a bulletin that Ben Vick, minister of the Shelbyville Road Church of Christ in Indianapolis, had received from his mother many years before. I am sharing it with you this week in the hope that it will be an encouragement to all of us in our walk with the Master. It is titled "Just For Today."

JUST FOR TODAY I will try to live through this day only, and not set far-reaching goals to try to overcome all of my problems at once. I know I can do something for 12 hours that would appall me if I felt that I had to keep it up for a lifetime.

JUST FOR TODAY I will try to be happy. Abraham Lincoln said, "Most folks are about as happy as they make up their minds to be." He was right. I will not dwell on thoughts that depress. I will chase them out of my mind and replace them with happy thoughts.

JUST FOR TODAY I will adjust myself to what is. I will face reality. I will try to change those things I can change and accept those things I cannot change.

JUST FOR TODAY I will try to improve my mind. I will not be a mental loafer. I will force myself to read something that requires effort, thought, and concentration.

JUST FOR TODAY I will exercise my soul in three ways. I will do a good deed for somebody—without letting them know it. (If they find out I did it, it won't count). I will do at least two things that I know I should do but have been putting off. I will not show anyone that my feelings are hurt; they may be hurt, but today I will not show it.

JUST FOR TODAY I will be agreeable. I will look as well as I can, dress becomingly, speak softly, act courteously, and speak ill of no one. Just for today, I will not try to improve anybody except myself.

JUST FOR TODAY I will have a program. I may not follow it exactly, but I will have it, thereby saving myself from two pests: hurry and indecision.

JUST FOR TODAY I will have a quiet half-hour to relax alone. During this, I will reflect on my behavior and will try to get a better perspective on my life.

JUST FOR TODAY I will not be afraid. I will gather the courage to do what is right and take responsibility for my own actions. I will expect nothing from the world, but I will realize that as I give to the world, the world will give to me.

The elders ask everyone, including children if possible, to please wear a face mask to worship service. Take a seat as soon as you come in and please do not visit around in the auditorium. Our visiting can be done after service, outside in the parking lot. Thank you so much for your cooperation!

Remember to keep Scott Watts in your prayers as he starts his new walk in Christ. Scott was baptized Aug.16th.

Hope Children's Home

Enmore, Guyana – Building Fund

What generous hearts . . . thank you so much for the contributions we have already received! If you would like to give, over your regular contribution, you can earmark your money or check to the Hope Children's Home. There will be a plaque on the building when completed, in memory of sister Debbie Baker. Our goal is $20,000 or more and we will continue the fundraising until the end of September.

Brother Louis Rushmore has written a book, "Jesus Christ Is The Son Of God". It is a comprehensive sermon outline book about the Godhead, mostly about Jesus Christ. The brethren in India are asking for more copies and there are plans for it to be reprinted in the Telegu language so it can be sent to them. Contact brother Louis Rushmore if you would like to give money to help this effort.
