HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!

“4 And you, fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord.”

Ephesians 6:4

Visitors

Welcome Visitors! If you are visiting with us today, you are our honored guest. We hope you find our worship uplifting and in accordance with God's word. Please fill out a visitor's card and put it in the collection plate.

Friendship Bread: All visitors are invited to take a loaf of our Friendship bread, made especially for you, as you leave the auditorium. We hope you will enjoy the bread and come back and visit us at every opportunity.

Hearing Assistance System: This facility is equipped with a Hearing Assistance System. Please ask one of our elders or Jerry Adkins for a receiver.

There is a Nursery available for your convenience. It is located in the foyer. Our nursery is for nursing mothers and mothers tending to their children.

Church Family News

No Welcome Friends Fellowship Meal today because it is Father's Day.

Memorial Service for Mike Adcock is tomorrow at 4 p.m. here at the building. If you are bringing food for the dinner after the memorial service, please bring it by 3:30 p.m. Check the list in the foyer if you'd like to bring something or see Cherri Gould.

Super Saturday Vacation Bible School will be June 30th. We are collecting old newspapers you do not need anymore. There is a box in the foyer to put these in. Also, if you have a canopy/gazebo for outdoors, we are in need of a couple to borrow. Please see Pam Brown.

Jamaica Mission Trip: The mission team is on their way home today! They should be home this evening. Please pray for their safe travels.

Central Florida Sunday Evening Worship is July 22, from 5:30-7:00 p.m. It is hosted by 17th Street church of Christ with a lesson by Clarence Bell. See the bulletin board in the foyer for more details.

When God Created Fathers

When the good Lord was creating fathers He started with a tall frame. And a female angel nearby said, "What kind of father is that? If You're going to make children so close to the ground, why have You put fathers up so high? He won't be able to shoot marbles without bending, or even kiss a child without a lot of stooping." And God smiled and said, "Yes, but if I make him child-size, who would children have to look up to?"

And when God made a father's hands, they were large and sinewy. And the angel shook her head sadly and said, "Do You know what You're doing? Large hands are clumsy. They can't manage diaper pins, small buttons, rubber bands on ponytails or even remove splinters caused by baseball bats." And God smiled and said, "I know, but they're large enough to hold everything a small boy empties from his pockets at the end of a day...yet small enough to cup a child's face in his hands."

And then God molded long, slim legs and broad shoulders. And the angel nearby had a heart attack. "Boy, this is the end of the week, all right," she clucked. "Do You realize You just made a father without a lap? How is he going to pull a child close to him without the kid falling between his legs?" And God smiled and said, "A mother needs a lap. A father needs strong shoulders to pull a sled, balance a boy on a bicycle, or hold a sleepy head on the way home from the circus."

God was in the middle of creating two of the largest feet anyone had ever seen when the angel could contain herself no longer. "That's not fair. Do You honestly think those large boats are going to dig out of bed early in the morning when baby cries? Or walk through a small birthday party without crushing at least three guests?" And God smiled and said, "They'll work. You'll see. They'll support a small child who wants to 'ride a horse to Banbury Cross,' or scare off mice at the summer cabin, or display shoes that will be a challenge to fill."

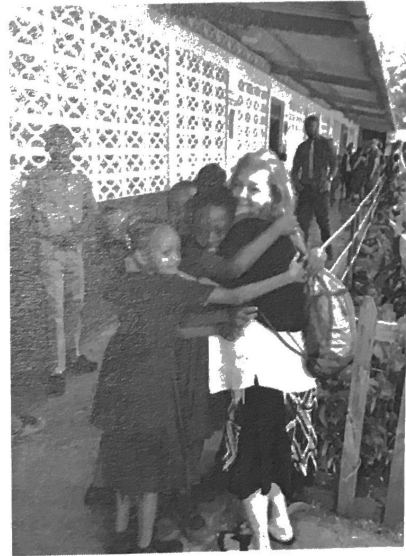

God worked throughout the night, giving the father few words, but a firm, authoritative voice; eyes that saw everything, but remained calm and tolerant. Finally almost as an afterthought, He added -- tears. Then He turned to the angel and said, "Now, are you satisfied that he can love as much as a mother?"

The angel shuteth up.

YOUTH CORNER

Chad's Chatter

Jesus loves the little children;
All the children of the world,
Red and yellow, black and white,
They are precious in His sight.
Jesus loves the little children of the world!

Matthew 18:2-5

"Then Jesus called a little child to Him, set him in the midst of them, and said, 'Assuredly, I say to you, unless you are converted and become as little children, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven. Therefore, whoever humbles himself as this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. Whoever receives one little child like this in My name receives Me.'"
