Today Jesus Came

You came to church today for many reasons: maybe to bring someone, maybe to come with someone, or maybe to see someone. It is good you came. There is no doubt you could have been somewhere else and doing something else.

What you need to know is that Jesus came today. Did you see Him? He may have stood before you. He may have sat beside you. You may not have seen Him or even recognized Him, but He was here. Watching and inviting.

He may have spoken through a song, or through a scripture or by a speaker. His voice may have sounded familiar, not because you knew it was His, but because you've heard others who spoke for Him. Yet, it was still Him.

I know Jesus came today because He promised He would be here today. Any time His people gather together, He said He would be with us.

So, when His word was spoken, did you listen? Did it touch your heart? Were you compelled to be any different? Were you saddened by what He had to do? Were you cheered that He did it for you? Were you changed?

Today Jesus came to watch and invite us into His Kingdom. Did you accept the invitation? Did you obey the gospel? Did you renew your faith?

Today Jesus came to hear us and listen to us who worship Him. Did you participate? Wouldn't it be strange to watch and listen from His eternal perspective? The things that distract us now could never distract us with an eternal perspective. There might be some things that we would still be required to do, but it would never take away our desire and focus and attention from the Lord's perspective.

Today Jesus came in Spirit and in Truth. I hope you were ready for Him. I hope you will be ready when He comes again to come no more. I hope you will be ready when He descends "from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first." Because right after that, "we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord." That is, if we were ready for Him. If not, well, I really do not want to sadden you right now with that thought, "Therefore comfort one another with these words."
