Be The Change!

Be Merciful!

(Matthew 9:9-13)

“As Jesus passed on from there, He saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, ‘Follow Me.’ So he arose and followed Him. Now it happened, as Jesus sat at the table in the house, that behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with him and His disciples. And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to His disciples, ‘Why does your Teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?’ When Jesus heard that, He said to them, ‘Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. But go and learn what this means: “I desire mercy and not sacrifice.” For I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance.’”

This year, we would like to take about 30 pieces of costume jewelry pins or brooches for the ladies. We are going to make name tags and we will use the jewelry to pin them on for the week. We are also collecting about 30 potholders to share. If anyone has pins or potholders that they would like to donate, please give them to Sarah Myers, June Crenshaw, or Pam Brown. If you would like to give money instead, to help purchase some of the needed items, you can give your money to Larry Hyder.

God's Grace

"And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work" (2 Corinthians 9:8).

After these forty-two years of ministry, I have learned two important things. First, God's servants are totally dependent upon the grace of God. God's grace or favor provides far more than forgiveness. God shapes and molds us into the kind of people that He wishes us to be.

In Philippians 1:6 Paul wrote, "And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ." Yes, God expects us to use the talents and abilities He gives us, but we should never forget that every good gift comes from Him (James 1:17). Paul urges us, "Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure." (Philippians 2:12-13).

Second, we are wholly dependent upon the kindness of God to provide for our needs and the needs of this ministry. God does not send us into His vineyard empty-handed and ill-equipped. God's grace abounds so that we have all sufficiency in all things at all times for every good deed. When faithful Christians ask, God answers; when they seek, He helps them find; and when they knock, the Lord opens the door. God truly answers prayer (Matthew 7:7-9).

Additional Church announcements

Check the bulletin board in the foyer: There are several events going on in our area. The flyers for these events are on the bulletin board in the foyer. Please check for area Gospel Meetings, a Wellness Fair, a Ladies' Day, a 3-day seminar about Science and the Bible by Kyle Butt, and more.

We are collecting items for the Mt. Dora Children's Home Food & Supply Drive. It takes a lot of food and supplies to feed the "family" at Mt. Dora. Let's help them fill their pantry with grocery items. There is a labeled box in the foyer to place these items. The supply truck will come to our area between October 28-31. If you wish, you may also donate gift cards to Wal-Mart or Publix so they may purchase perishable items. Please give these gift cards to Larry Hyder or David Myers instead of placing them in the box. There is a list of what is needed on the bulletin board in the foyer.
