Philippians 4:6-7

Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

In this season of hope, when people are filled with rejoicing and graciousness because of Christ the Lord, don't forget to pray a prayer to the Father, that might go something like this:

“. . . also, dear God and Father in Heaven, thank You for the times You have delivered me and answered my prayers in the past, and for Your promise to never leave or forsake me. Thank You that I can cast all my anxieties on You, as Your servant Peter writes, “because I know You care for me.” And even though I may not see any solution to my problem right now, I want to thank You for being more concerned about my need than I am. Help me to trust You completely in any and every situation.

In Jesus name, Amen!”
