Welcome Hunter & Lillianna

Hunter Melott and his wife Lillianna are natives of West Virginia. They went to Parkersburg High School and lived in Parkersburg until they were married about 3 years ago. Hunter grew up in New Martinsville and he and Lilli now live in Marietta, Ohio.

Hunter attended the West Virginia School of Preaching and during his two years there he preached at many congregations around West Virginia, Ohio and Maryland. After he graduated from the school of preaching, he was an associate minister at the Oakwood Road Church of Christ. He also worked with a youth group at Fairmount State University and helped with the Lads to Leaders ministry. At the Washington Street Church of Christ in Marietta, he was their pulpit minister and had a radio program name Truth For Today that was broadcast to five different stations in the area. Hunter also took numerous courses in biblical studies at Heritage Christian University.

PRAYER LIST

~ Libbie and Basile Summers have been sick and are doing better now but the doctor cautioned Basile to stay in so he will be healthy to have his upcoming surgery. They have waited a long time for this surgery and we pray all goes well and God blesses him with a quick recovery. His surgery is scheduled for Monday, Jan.29th in Orlando.

~ Edra Nell Courtney is under Hospice care while she is in the Lady Lake Specialty Care. They are helping regulate her medicine and helping her feel more settled.

~ Charles Wright has been home sick with pneumonia. He is on medicine and is doing some better.

~ Don Albert was taken to the ER last week with pneumonia. They were able to give him medicine and send him home.

~ Ken Scott had quite extensive surgery on his face to remove some cancer. The good news is that they got it all and he will not have to have radiation.

~ Fred French's surgery had to be postponed because of sickness. He has the "bug" that has been going around. Marilyn is also sick.

~ Howard Alls will be having very serious and delicate eye surgery in Ocala on January 24th and the 31st. Please keep him in your prayers during these upcoming days and for the surgery to be successful.

~ The doctor will be removing Bryan Noland's port because he is doing so well. We praise God for this good news.
