GOD WANTS A MAN

GOD WANTS A MAN! God's method has always been a man. This is too simple, yea, naïve for moderns. Men like plans, projects, spectaculars. God hunts for a man. Usually in His quest for a man God finds a woman! God's women train God's men!

GOD WANTS A MAN OF FAITH like Abraham. Abraham is the "Father of the Faithful." God's grace was followed by Abraham. Faith is foundational. A basic trust in God. "God, I am yours, period!" Without faith, no man can please God.

GOD WANTS A MAN OF KNOWLEDGE like Paul. Paul was a mental giant, trained by Gamaliel. Yet his thirst never quenched. He never arrived; he never knew he was a great man. He was still growing the day of his death.

GOD WANTS A MAN OF PATIENCE like Job. God's servants suffer. God is a Father, not an "Aladdin's Lamp." Job lost his wealth, his children and his health . . . but not his perseverance. Job never lost his integrity. It is always too soon to quit.

GOD WANTS A MAN OF GODLINESS like Barnabas. Few men are called "good" in the scripture, yet scripture says many things concerning the principles of good men. Barnabas was not a mental giant or an eloquent preacher. He was not a writer of epistles – but he was a "good" man – a godly, humble servant.

GOD WANTS A MAN OF LOVE like John. John was a man of anger, prejudice, and retaliation when younger. Yet John loved Jesus and Jesus loved John. His gospel and his epistle featured faith and love. God is love. To love is to be born of God.

GOD, SIMPLY WANTS A MAN!
