Jesus Christ

If someone were to come up to you on the street and ask you who Jesus was, what would you say? This piece below summarizes the importance of Jesus and His great impact on our world in the last two thousand years:

He was born in an obscure village, the child of a peasant woman.*

He grew up in still another village, where He worked in a carpenter's shop until He was thirty. Then for three years He was an itinerant preacher.*

He never wrote a book. He never held an office. He never had a family or owned a house. He did not go to college. He never visited a big city. He never traveled two hundred miles from the place where He was born. He did none of the things one usually associates with greatness.*

He had no credentials but Himself.*

He was only thirty-three when the tide of public opinion turned against Him. His friends ran away. He was turned over to His enemies and went through the mockery of a trial. He was nailed to a cross between two thieves. While He was dying, His executioners gambled for His clothing, the only property He had on earth. When He was dead, He was laid in a borrowed grave through the pity of a friend.*

Nineteen centuries (and now, nearly twenty) have come and gone, and today He remains the central figure of the human race, and the leader of mankind's progress. All the armies that ever marched, all the navies that ever sailed, all the parliaments that ever sat, all the kings that ever reigned, put together, have not affected the life of man on this planet so much as that one solitary life.*

For further study, read these passages and consider how they can add to your understanding of who God the Son is: Luke 2:52; Matthew 6:13-19; John 20:25-28; Isaiah 52:13-53:6; Revelation 4 and 5.
