Welcome

Today, we welcome Jonah Dawes who will be teaching our adult Bible class in the auditorium and will also be leading singing for us during our worship hour. Jonah has been married to his wife, Cara, for 2 years. Unfortunately, she was not able to be here with us today.

Jonah is from Fayetteville, Georgia and is currently the Youth & Family Minister for the Fayetteville Church of Christ. He studied Youth and Family Ministry at Faulkner University and graduated in 2019. He states that he is looking forward to a life of diligently serving the Lord and His Kingdom.

PRAYER LIST

~ Ken Scott will be starting radiation treatments for his cancer. He will be having treatments 5 days a week for 6 weeks.

~ Fred French had a chest x-ray a couple of weeks ago and the doctor saw something they want to check out. He is having more tests run.

~ Peggy Murphy is home from the hospital after having issues with her blood pressure. She had many tests run and everything checked out good.

~ Basil Summers is still going through the process and tests to have surgery for his prostate cancer. It seems there have been many roadblocks. Please continue to pray for him.

~ Bryan Noland is scheduled to have more surgery on his jaw tomorrow, November 6th. Keep Martha Rushmore in your prayers as well. She left Thursday to be with him.

~ David Paher's wife, Philena, had brain surgery and is doing well. (David, one of our missionaries we support, was here with his family 4 weeks ago to give us a report on the mission work in Guyana.) We pray for the success of Philena's surgery to help diminish the severe seizures she suffers with.

~ Julie Welch, Mary Costa's niece, is having chemo treatments.

~ Continue to be in prayer as we begin our search for an Associate/Family Minister.

~ Continue to pray for all those involved in the shootings that we have seen in the news.
