Lesson 2: A Message to the Chosen Lady (Part 1)

Text: 2 John

Introduction

1. The Great Mississippi River, a gentle giant – an unwieldy beast.
2. In many ways, love is like the Mississippi River.
 - a. It has life-giving power...without control, it can do great harm. Why?
 - b. When it comes to those we know (sinners), can we go too far? How?
3. This small letter of 2 John shows us how to keep love within safe boundaries by building in our lives two solid river banks – Truth and discernment.
 - a. This letter contains both _____ and a _____.
 - b. See vv 9-10, 12
 - c. What will happen if ones we love go outside the doctrine of Christ for religious matters? (see Gal. 1:6-9, 5:1-4; Matt. 7:21-23)
4. In our world today, there is a denominational system that is build on the false idea “that it doesn’t really matter what you believe or practice religiously”.
 - a. Does it matter to the writer John what people believe and practice religiously?
 - b. Do we have deceivers religiously in our world today like John did?
 - c. What do these false teachers do to the Bible?
 - d. What should we do to answer these false teachers?
5. If someone, a teacher of God’s word, knocks on your door, and you detect that what he is saying is false, what are some of the fundamentals of the faith you will teach him?
